PHONICS PLUS TEACHER TRAINING SUMMER COURSE

Session 1: June 24 - 28 (M-F) * 12:30 - 4:30 * St. Patrick School

Session 2: July 22 - 26 (M-F) * 8:30 - 12:30 * Saint Louis School,
Newell Hall, Room 44

Course tuition: $400

This intensive 5-day course will introduce teachers to the Phonics Plus Method of using phonics as a foundation for reading, writing, spelling, and speaking. It will provide elementary, special education, and/or ELL teachers with proven and effective ways to teach language arts through structured and systematic instruction. Participants will learn the sounds of the 70 common phonograms, spelling rules, and proper handwriting skills.

Course Materials:

- * The Writing Road to Reading, 5th Edition, or earlier edition
- * Phonics Plus supplement to the text
- * Wide-rule sewn composition notebook
- * Several 6-sided #2 pencils, and a red pencil
- * Phonogram cards (teacher or student set)

Please bring the textbook, notebook, and pencils to class. Additional materials may be purchased from Phonics Plus.

To register for this course, please complete the bottom portion of this flyer. Your registration and payment should be mailed to Phonics Plus, P.O. Box 10324, Honolulu, HI 96816.

Under the Highly Qualified Teachers program, the Department of Education will cover the registration cost for teachers whose school is located in an economically disadvantaged district.
