EDUCATION MISSION

The New-York Historical Society Education Division provides dynamic programming and curriculum resources for students and teachers in New York and beyond. Historical study sparks curiosity and creativity, promotes cultural understanding, and fosters an empowered citizenry to strengthen our democracy. Our staff of passionate professionals draws on our world-renowned collections to engage learners of all ages in the study of our collective past.

Education programs are made possible through endowments established by
National Endowment for the Humanities

Application Information and Instructions

Deadline

Complete applications must be filed by March 1, 2020. Late entries will not be considered.

Application Details

The application includes several components:

Basic contact information, including your e-mail address, phone number, mailing address, institution name and address, years of teaching experience, etc.

A resume in PDF form (five pages max).

A letter of support from a current or past supervisor, colleague, or student.

The names and e-mail addresses of three references who the selection committee may contact as part of this process. One of these references may be the same person who writes your letter of support.

A short answer (150 words max) in response to the following prompt: What do you hope your students and/or school community will gain from your participation in this institute?

A brief essay (two pages double spaced max, in PDF form) in response to the following prompt: NEH Institutes are academically and scholarly rigorous experiences. Participating teachers will engage in readings, lectures, discussions, tours, and other experiences designed to push their understanding of American history and K-12 education. What qualifies you to be a part of this community?

A brief essay (two pages double spaced max, in PDF form) in response to the following prompt: There are many incredible NEH institutes offered each summer. Why do you want to attend this one?

For information about applicant eligibility and the selection process, visiting our About the Institute page.

Application Instructions

Applications will be collected using this form. Applicants will be able to upload their resume and essay responses within the form. The form will automatically close at 11:59 pm on March 1.

References should send their letter of support in a PDF via e-mail to NEHInstitute@nyhistory.org by the application deadline above.

If you encounter any problems with our electronic form or have questions, please contact us at NEHInstitute@nyhistory.org.
